Expired Zoning Permit, Other

Code Officer Notes:

The original zoning permit was issued on September 3, 2024 for a single-family dwelling. The owner (Mr. Leonardo Castaneda) asked to live in the RV while they were building the house. Temporary housing is permitted under Section 5.14 of the Clearcreek Township Zoning Resolution. There is a requirement that the RV be connected to utilities. There is an expectation that a dwelling is under construction during that time. On August 13, 2025 the owner (Mr. Castaneda) requested the zoning permit and the temporary housing be extended until September 3, 2026. Mr. Jeff Palmer extended the permit. On August 19, 2026 Mr. Jandon Ankrom and Mr. Palmer made a site visit to affirm the status of construction. We documented that trenches have been dug for a foundation, but no foundation has been established. We spoke with the owners (Leonardo and Alissa Castaneda) and explained that their zoning permit was set to expire on September 3, 2026. Mr. Palmer explained that he could issue a new zoning permit for the dwelling but would not be able to issue a new zoning permit for the temporary housing. On August 31, 2026, the owners (Leonardo and Alissa Castaneda) came to Mr. Palmer's office and requested an extension to live in the RV. Mr. Palmer outlined that after discussing the issue with the Law Director, he was only able to issue a new permit for the dwelling and not issue a permit for the temporary housing. Mr. & Mrs. Castaneda stated that their architect will be submitting for all permits. Mr. Palmer outlined the need to vacate the RV and disconnect the RV from utilities no later than the expiration of the permit (September 3, 2026). Mr. Palmer will make a site visit to document activity on September 4, 2026, if the RV remains connected to utilities and/or is occupied, a 30 day notice of zoning violation would be issued. If the owners continue to live in the RV, Mr. Palmer will seek relief from the Common Pleas Court. Mr. Palmer informed them that he will also be seeking reimbursement for all legal fees.

: NOTICE OF APPEAL (AUGUST 31,

CLEARCREEK TOWNSHIP
ZONING DEPT.

Pursuant to Section 519.15 of the Ohio Revised Code and Section 21.01(H)(2) of the Clearcreek Township Zoning Code, San Juan LLC ("Appellant") hereby provides notice of an appeal to the Clearcreek Township Board of Zoning Appeals (the "BZA"). The decision at issue in this appeal (the "Decision") is the denial of the Director of Planning and Zoning (the "Director") of an extension of time for temporary housing at 4168 Utica Road, Warren County Auditor's Parcel Id. No. 0922351012 and 0922351013 (the "Property". The Decision occurred on August 31, 2026 and is described on the first page of the Notice of Code Violation attached as Exhibit A.

Appellant is the owner of record of the Property and is directly aggrieved by the Decision. Appellant's grounds for appeal are that the Decision is unconstitutional, illegal, arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable, and unsupported by the preponderance of substantial, reliable, and probative evidence. Among other issues, the net effect of the Decision is to deny housing for three minor persons (children of Appellant's members) who are disabled under state and federal law. As disabled persons, these children are entitled to reasonable accommodations from general policies in order to enjoy equal access to housing. R.C. 4112.02(H)(18)(a); 42 U.S.C. § 3604(f)(3)(B); 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii). And because zoning is a general public policy that affects housing access, the Township has an affirmative obligation to make reasonable accommodations for these disabled children in the administration of its zoning regulations. See, e.g., Anderson v. City of Blue Ash, 798 F.3d 338, 360 (6th Cir. 2015); Howard v. City of Beavercreek, 276 F.3d 802, 806 (6th Cir. 2002); Smith & Lee Assocs. v. City of Taylor, 102 F.3d 781, 795 (6th Cir. 1996); and Marbrunak, Inc. v. City of Stow, 974 F.2d 43, 45 (6th Cir. 1992). The Director abused his discretion in unreasonably denying the requested extension in contravention of applicable law, and the BZA should therefore reverse his Decision.

Appellant reserves the right to present argument, offer witnesses, and offer evidence in support of this appeal at a public hearing, so as to create a record for appeal to the Warren County Court of Common Pleas under R.C. 2506.03. Regardless of the outcome of this proceeding, Appellant also reserves the right to pursue damages against the Township in a separate action, as is permitted under R.C. 519.26.

Date: September 17, 2026
